Summary of reasons for decision:

The DVD is classified as objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes, the use of violence to compel a person to participate in, or submit to, sexual conduct, and the use of urine and excrement in association with degrading sexual conduct.

The DVD comprises a collection of episodes from a number of sexually explicit Japanese animated series. Each series presents the rape of women as sexually arousing. This is a sustained and dominant theme throughout. Three series play off the youthful characteristics of the characters and present them as sexually desirable, thereby legitimising and encouraging adult sexual interest in young persons. One series also presents sexual gratification being derived from the use of urine and excrement during the degrading treatment of a woman.

Excisions to remove the problematic material were considered, but were deemed impractical because of the high extent of these depictions throughout the DVD.

The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of the classification criteria. The classification of this publication interferes with freedom of expression, but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 are deemed to be objectionable.
